For Gen Z, lab-grown diamonds are forever

Gaddars: Punjab CM Bhagwant Mann slams MPs who quit AAP for BJP

Is not using your credit card doing more harm than good?

Diamonds have always been about class, tradition and legacy, which arrived with weddings, anniversaries, once-in-lifetime milestones or as carefully stored heirlooms brought out on special occasions, only to be tucked away again.

That narrative is being rewritten by Gen Z. They don't want to wait for a special occasion to wear or buy a diamond. It has become a part of their lives and is being worn effortlessly and stylishly.

ADVERTISEMENT

And more often than not, that diamond is lab-grown. "Lab-grown diamonds have become a status symbol because they reflect an informed, intentional choice. Today, it's not just about owning something; it's about understanding why you own it," says a spokesperson for a lab-based luxury fine jewellery brand available in India.
