With the holidays on the horizon, it's time to think about party hopping and gift-giving. Inevitably, the questions begin to surface—what to wear, what to give? Jewelry is always up for multitasking when it comes to the holiday season. Small boxes covered in festive paper and bows always delight as gifts, and when it comes to dressing to celebrate, accessories are an easy way for you to stay on trend with a little bit of dazzle.

"The best thing about playing around with and updating your jewelry is that it can elevate your outfit without investing in new clothing items," says Jen Reed, style blogger at @TheSisterStudioIG. "Take your go-to holiday party look and accessorize with bold silver pieces or a statement earring and you have a completely different vibe that feels current, cool, and elevated."

According to Reed, this fall (and even more so into the holiday) we're opting for bold statement pieces, mixed metals and gems, charms, and girly accents like bows and pearls. Whether you're donning these pieces for a party or wrapping them up as a gift for that special someone, here are a dozen pieces that make the holidays bright.

Go bold with statement pieces

Don't be afraid to make a splash at your holiday parties with a bold statement piece.

If there's ever a time to make a statement, the holiday season is it. And thanks to the style powers that be, statement pieces have returned and are in full swing for parties and celebrations. Brilliant Earth amps up the festivities with its limited edition Festivity Prasiolite and Diamond Cocktail Ring band that embraces a large center stone (choose from a soft green Prasiolite or glimmering blue topaz) and diamond accents with glitz and glamour through its white, rose, yellow gold, or platinum band.

Alexis Bittar has also cornered the market on bold pieces and continues with its signature use of hand-polished lucite for its Lucite Molten Link Necklace. The graduating links and shiny gold-tone brass and matte black make a bold statement.

Opt for a sweeter statement with bow earrings

Bows aren't just the perfect finishing touch for your gifts this season.

Gift boxes aren't the only things sporting bows this holiday season. From dainty gold and heavily embellished pearls to glamorous sparkles, bows are finding their way into our jewelry boxes. The Petite Bow Earrings by Shashi add a sweet bow of sparkly clear crystals for a glamorous touch of style. Meanwhile, the Crystal Bow Earrings from Anthropologie are magical and feature striking, shimmering Cubic zirconia with long drapes of bows that come in six colors to match all your holiday frocks.

Mix it up with unexpected metal and stone pairings

Mix up your metals (or multicolored stones) to add a modern touch to any lucky person on your gift lists.

While the holiday season is the premier time of year to mix and mingle, today's trend is all about mixing up gemstones and metals in your jewelry. Mixed gemstones of amethyst, citrine, peridot, and blue topaz are set in sterling silver in the Blue Nile Petite Oval Multicolor Gemstone Bracelet for a colorful wrist adornment that brings a bit of dazzle.

You can also keep things simple with these Shadow Hoops from Electric Picks. Bringing together 14K gold and sterling silver within a one inch hoop, these lightweight earrings can be styled with any casual party ensemble for a polished finish.

Pile on the charms for an unforgettable holiday look

Add a pendant or two (or more) for a sweet charm necklace look.

"One trend I'm loving that just feels fresh is what I'm calling the 'cool girl' charm necklace," says Reed. These aren't your grandma's charms—these are chic, mixed metal, and feel both girly and edgy. The charms from Awe Inspired are nods to both modern and ancient goddesses (think Florence Nightingale, Artemis, Persephone, John of Arc, Aphrodite, and even Ruth Bader Ginsburg) and can elevate your style with bold messages of strength and girl power.

Jane Win jewelry also makes this year's unwrapping experience unforgettable, with charms in everything from zodiac coins to protective symbols, sweet hearts to birthstones. Available with or without a chain, you can load them up yourself or gift them to someone on your Nice list.

Stay festive with chunky silver jewelry

Some heavyweight pieces in classic silver are trendier than ever.

There's no better way to catch the light and their attention than with a piece of chunky silver jewelry. It's an easy way to elevate any outfit, according to Reed. Keep it simple with a single She's Bold Bracelet from Bracha, or layer them up your arm to make a showstopping statement.

Coeur de Lion's iconic GeoCube Bracelet with Chunky Chain is made from natural stones agate and howlite, Swarovski crystals, and rhinestone rondelles combined with chunky chains to create an exciting silver bracelet.

Stay classic with glittering butterflies

Throwback to a serious '90s moment with butterfly jewels.

While they're typically symbols of warmer weather (Selena Gomez was spotted donning butterfly jewelry this past summer), butterflies are fluttering into this holiday season, perhaps as a nod to their status as one of the iconic '90s nostalgic symbols.

Butterfly studs are at the top of the most-coveted pieces, with these Lisa Nik 18K Yellow Gold Diamond Butterfly Studs being a standout option that can add a little glam and luxe to any holiday outfit. For a more budget-friendly take on the trend, the Verlas Wings of Transformation collection represents seasons of change and feminine energy through its sweet, enchanting Triple Butterfly Drop Necklace made with ethically sourced diamonds.
